Greetings from the University of North Alabama!

It's that special time of the year again and we at UNA are working hard to finalize preparations for the Alabama Conference of Theatre-Secondary Division's STATE TRUMBAUER WEEK. Our Department of Entertainment Industry faculty, staff and students, along with the entire UNA Community, are honored to serve once again as your hosts. As your hosts, we will strive to make your festival experience one that is efficient, professional and exciting for all of us; your enjoyment is our enjoyment. We are here to facilitate all possible needs so don't hesitate to ask us if you need any assistance. We in UNA Theatre function much like a family and we are honored to welcome you into that family while you are visiting us.

Please be aware that on Friday (December 2) UNA has regularly scheduled classes in session all across campus. In light of that, we encourage you to stay on campus once you arrive as parking, traffic, and accessibility will be more difficult. Parking and traffic, in regard to classes, should not be any trouble on Saturday!

To centralize information and make things easier to access, we have created a TRUMBAUER page on our Theatre website (www.una.edu/theatre). There you will find information relevant to the festival such as: on-campus eating options, campus maps, facility floorplans, off-campus eating options, etc.

We are looking forward to your arrival! Please let me know if I can answer any further questions you may have. ROAR LIONS!

Break-a-leg!
